

Learn Irish fiddle for St. Patrick's Day 3/15 with Rochester fiddler Alyssa Rodriguez! This hour-long workshop is a perfect chance to explore the world of Irish fiddle for violin players of all ages. The workshop will focus on foundational fiddle bowing patterns, Irish "lilt" and groove, and tunes will be taught by ear with sheet music to be taken home. A good chance for ear training and fiddling fun all around!

Bio:

Raised next to a farm in the woods of Connecticut, Alyssa Rodriguez earned her bachelor's degree in music composition and violin from Ithaca College in central New York, where she began immersing herself in fiddle music and playing for dances. Alyssa has studied Scandinavian fiddling with Laurie Hart 2015-2021 and 2021-2022, Alyssa studied in Helsinki, Finland at the internationally renowned Sibelius Academy on a prestigious Fulbright Fellowship, where she studied and researched Nordic folk music. From 2023-2024, she studied folk music at the Eric Sahlström Institute in Sweden with work renowned players.

Learn more at <https://alyssafiddle.com>.